Dear Mr. Garrison

119 I feel that I am perhaps making too free in writing to you. but if I explain that I am a daughter of John Bright. You may perhaps kindly take that as some sort of excuse for what I am doing. We hear today that you are likely to come to Bristol about the 30th. Now we live 30 miles west of Bristol. and it has occurred to me whether if I Could persuade my Father to Come to us for a day or two then. I might be able to induce you to come & spend a day or two quietly in the Country - Of course I wd. not suggest any thing that wd. curtail your visit to our kind friend Miss Estlin & I have no doubt that your time is already much occupied - Still I just venture to make the suggestion. Perhaps Miss Estlin would come too, & we should hope to see your Son - Believe me most truly Yours

Helen P. B. Clark

I write in great haste -

If you are not able to come, certainly, please do not trouble to reply -
